SUMMER 2020
TEACHER WORKSHOPS

Save the Date

July 28-31

FRENCH
Workshop for K-12 French Teachers

Dr. Anne V. Lair (University of Utah) and Mme Michèle Harward (Canyons School District) will address Intercultural Standards, Literacy, Integrated Assessment and, last but not least, the role of grammar towards Proficiency.

Throughout the workshop, participants will produce activities and lesson plans including 1) the ACTFL/NCSSFL Intercultural Communication Guidelines, 2) Literacy via the FLLITE approach, and 3) the IPAs. Attendees will practice how to teach grammar explicitly.

The workshop fee is $95.

Participants have the option of signing up for 2 graduate-level credits of FRNCH 6900 for an additional $50 OR may receive 2 credits through MIDAS course number 58006.

L2trec.utah.edu/news/2020SummerLanguageWorkshops.php

The workshop may take place remotely, still allowing collaboration and oral communication among all participants.